

argentina

G77 Meets in Havana for A ‘New Economic World Order,’ As Global North Unleashes More Sanctions

Link to Source: EIR

Argentina President Alberto Fernández Being Greeted by President of Cuba Miguel Diaz-Canel

Eir Lead Editorial For Saturday September 16, 2023

Sept. 15, 2023 (EIRNS)—Today was the first of the two-day Summit of the G77+China, meeting in Havana, chaired for 2023 by Cuba, whose Foreign Minister said in advance of the gathering that there will be “a call for a new economic world order.” Minister Bruno Rodriguez said on Sept. 15 to reporters that the Summit statement will underscore “the right to development in an increasingly exclusive, unfair, unjust and plundering international order.”

... Read more

September 16, 2023

eir

eir lead

argentina

alberto fernández

miguel diaz-canel

g77

china

cuba

An Emergency Program to Save Argentina, a New Member of the Brics

The following proposal was released by the Schiller Institute, Sept. 4, 2023.

Link to Source: EIR

Agência Brasil/Fábio Rodrigues-Pozzebom

To save Argentina, the Schiller Institute proposes immediate steps to be taken by the government of President Alberto Fernández (shown), and candidate Sergio Massa, the current Economics Minister.

This article appears in the September 15, 2023 issue of Executive Intelligence Review.

Print version of this article

There are certain battles that cannot be avoided and must be won. One such is the battle to get the United States and Western Europe to change their current geopolitical confrontation course with Russia and China, a course meant to enforce the bankrupt trans-Atlantic financial system and its unipolar world order. The probable alternative to winning that fight is thermonuclear war.

Another such battle is the upcoming presidential election in Argentina on Oct. 22, which is shaping up as the immediate, first battleground between the newly expanded BRICS-11 process and that same bankrupt trans-Atlantic system—a system that is terrified that it will be swept away by the tidal wave of nations joining the BRICS, the emerging Global Majority. The outcome of that showdown will surely determine the future of Argentina for decades to come; but it may also decide the fate of the BRICS as well. on Jan. 1, 2024, by beating that nation’s economy to a bloody pulp through debt collection and capital flight, and in that way fully discredit the current Alberto Fernández government and its party’s candidate, Economics Minister Sergio Massa, and hand victory to the psychologically unstable Javier Milei.

... Read more

September 15, 2023

eir

eir lead

argentina

brics

alberto fernández

sergio massa

javier milei

Wall Street Is Out to Make Argentina a Bloody Example for Any Nation That Tries to Join the Brics

Argentina Under Attack by Wall St.

Link to Source: EIR

Eir Lead Editorial For Monday September 4, 2023

Sept. 3, 2023, 2022 (EIRNS)—There are certain battles that cannot be avoided and must be won. One such is the battle to get the United States and Western Europe to change their current geopolitical confrontation course with Russia and China, a course meant to enforce the bankrupt trans-Atlantic financial system and its unipolar world order. The alternative to winning that fight is probable thermonuclear war.

... Read more

September 3, 2023

eir

eir lead

argentina

Alberto Fernández

Sergio Massa

wall st.

Javier Milei

imf

economic hitmen

Carlos Pereyra Mele

bcra

brics

ndb